HONOR ROLL 2004-2005

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends:

As I reflect on the 2004-05 academic year, I am reminded of your generosity. When Wabash asks for your help, you respond with gifts of time, talent, and treasure. The Honor Roll of Donors and Volunteers recognizes you who make it possible for our young men to earn a remarkable liberal arts education.

By putting our students at the center of all that we do, we provide an education that prepares them well for what ever career interest they pursue. We do this through discussions of primary texts in small classes; by taking our students into cultures different than their own; by offering internships that allow them to put into action their classroom learning; and by maintaining close student-faculty interaction across the campus.

These life-changing opportunities are the return on your investment in Wabash's mission to educate men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely.

On behalf of the students, faculty, and staff of the College, I extend my heartfelt thanks.

Sincerely,
Andrew T. Ford H'03
President

FROM THE DEAN FOR ADVANCEMENT

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Wabash College,

Welcome to the 2004-2005 Honor Roll of Donors and Volunteers. On behalf of our students, faculty and staff, thank you for making a difference at Wabash College. You are listed in this year's Honor Roll because you have affirmed your belief in our mission think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely. Your gifts to the annual fund, the fraternity partnerships, previous capital campaign commitments, and the Kane Society are investments in the 850 young men who seek an education here. Our students reap the benefits of those investments—state of the art facilities, talented faculty, ever-improving residential space, and innovative academic programs.

Your gifts of time to myriad volunteer activities are also investments. They are investments in the College's recruiting, career development, fraternity system, fundraising, and alumni and parent relations.

Few if any investments match the annual returns on your gifts to support Wabash students.

I hope you enjoy looking through this year's Honor Roll to find your own name and to appreciate the special company you join when you support Wabash College. I look forward to seeing your name in next year's Honor Roll.

Thank you again for everything you do to make Wabash College a better place.

Sincerely,
Joseph R. Emmick '92
Dean for Advancement

FROM THE CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Dear Friends,

I am delighted to present the financial highlights of our fiscal year ended June 30, 2005. The College continued to benefit from the strong financial resources that have accumulated throughout the years. Careful management of expenditures by College faculty and staff and the continued generous support from Trustees, alumni, and friends allowed Wabash to continue to pursue its mission of teaching and learning as the financial markets continued to stabilize. The College ended the year with a surplus that allowed us to increase the plant and equipment reserves more than anticipated. (Please see financial statement on the next page.)

With an addition to the endowment of $1.3 million from gifts, the market value of the endowment ended the fiscal year at approximately $315.0 million, representing a return on investments of 9.5 percent. The Investment Policy Committee of the Board of Trustees continued to maintain a diversified portfolio of investment instruments combined with an asset allocation strategy that allowed the endowment to increase market value. The endowment per student continues to top the GLCA schools and continues to place Wabash in the top-30 of all schools in the nation.

Total gifts and pledges for the fiscal year were in excess of $4.5 million. Unrestricted gifts to the Annual Fund were in excess of $2.67 million, with more than 36.3 percent participation from Wabash alumni. Student revenue covers approximately one-third of total operating costs; the Annual Fund is an important source of revenue for Wabash. The College greatly appreciates the continued support of alumni and friends who make annual gifts.

The Fraternity Partnerships that grew out of the Campaign for Leadership continue, with the completion of the new Phi Delta Theta house in August 2005. The College broke ground for the Phi Gamma Delta house in March, and planning continues for the Phi Psi, TKE, Kappa Sigma, and Delta Tau Delta house renovations. Programming is also underway to renovate dormitory space on campus.

This was an exciting year for Wabash as we saw plans come to fruition and began the challenge of meeting a new set of needs for the coming academic year. We thank all of you for your continued support in both time and money, and remain committed to being good stewards of the resources that you have entrusted to us.

Respectfully,
Deanna S. McCormick
Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer

From the Chairman of the 1832 Society

Dear Alumni and Friends,

As chairman of the 1832 Society, I want to thank you for your philanthropic leadership during the 2004-2005 giving year. All of you whose names are listed in this Honor Roll made a difference for Wabash students during the last year with your gifts of money, service, and creativity—especially those listed as members in one of the five giving clubs of the 1832 Society. (See giving lists following this letter.)

Your leadership gifts of $1,000 or more have a profound impact on current Wabash students and allow the College to improve academic programs and facilities; offer increased opportunities for off-campus study and internship experiences; and provide for enhancements in technology for those who work and study every day on the Wabash campus.

I truly hope that you will stand firmly committed to renewing your leadership support during the 2005-2006 giving year. In doing so you will help the College to do an even more effective job of educating Wabash men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely.

Yours sincerely,
Kevin G. Clifford '77
Chairman, The 1832 Society

From the Chairman of the Wabash College Annual Fund

Dear Wabash Friends and Families,

As chair of the Wabash College Annual Fund, I get the opportunity to write to you several times during the College's fiscal year. Many of you probably get phone calls from current Wabash students asking you for your support of the Annual Fund. And some might even get email reminders from the College informing you that your support is needed for Wabash to have a successful Annual Fund year. Well, I am pleased to report to you that all of our efforts during the 2004-2005 fiscal year resulted in another excellent year for unrestricted giving to the College. (See giving lists following this letter.)

In this honor roll we are celebrating you—the over 4,000 alumni, parents, and friends of Wabash College—who gave $2,669,874 to the Annual Fund during the 2004-2005 year. This amount represents the second consecutive $2.66 million year and the third most successful annual giving campaign in the College's history. I can speak for all of the students, faculty, and staff who truly appreciate your participation in the life of the College when I thank you for your annual support.

In reflecting on the Annual Fund, I ask you to remember that it is not MY gift or YOUR gift that constitutes the Annual Fund; but rather, it is the combination of over 4,000 of us who COLLECTIVELY make an annual contribution to the College. This collective group makes such a visible difference in the experiences of 850 Wabash men.

I also ask that you remember the feeling you had when you said “yes” to that student over the phone that you would make a gift, or the satisfaction you had when you dropped your gift in the mail. It is this same feeling—this same sense of satisfaction—that you will see when you return to campus or talk to a Wabash student and hear the difference your annual support is having in the lives of current Wabash men.

I hope you will join me during the 2005-2006 giving year by renewing your support of the Wabash Annual Fund. The need is on-going, but so is the sense of satisfaction you will feel when you have helped Wabash continue its good work.

Sincerely,
G. Michael Dill '71
National Chairman
Wabash College Annual Fund

From the Director of Alumni Affairs

Dear Friends,

During the summer I had the opportunity to visit some of our young men working on internships around Indiana. I have to tell you I have been extremely impressed by the talent and responsibility these men have demonstrated. (See class giving lists after this letter.)

Fran Raycroft '06 worked at the Galvin Life Science Center at the University of Notre Dame. Fran conducted research that might lead to cures for several different degenerative eye diseases. This research is state-of-the-art and involves uncovering the process by which a zebra fish's retina can regenerate itself from almost total cellular destruction. If they can uncover the secrets to this process, it may be possible to help the human eye do the same thing. Of special benefit to Fran is the fact that his lab partner was Ph.D. candidate Shane Fimbel '02! Fran's summer opportunity wasn't a summer job, it was a life time experience!

Nick Gregory '07 got a very similar scientific experience at a West Lafayette start-up company called Quadraspec. Nick was involved in breakthrough technology that is literally changing the face of diagnostic medicine. This company's "Bio-CD" enables healthcare providers to perform thousands or even millions of tests simultaneously on a single drop of blood. The technology requires little sample preparation and, according to its web site, "produces quantitative results with unprecedented range and sensitivity." In the time that Nick was with the company, the employee force more than doubled. Talk about getting in on the ground floor!

These internships offer our young men the opportunity to explore possible post-Wabash career opportunities, and the chance to test their academic skills while building some excellent resume content. Sure beats working at the feedlot for Uncle Bob!

Fran and Nick had great experiences, in part, because you have shown, through your generosity that you are willing to invest in their futures. Your generous gifts to the College impact virtually every part of their lives — from living units, to in- and out-of-classroom experiences, to learning and growing away from the Wabash campus.

I know Fran and Nick really appreciated their opportunities. And I know they join me in thanking you for helping make their entire Wabash experience a great one. Your annual gift to the College allows us to continue the quest to become better in every way. It is a quest without rest.

Thanks for all you do for Wabash,
Tom Runge '71

Class Agents

1

The Society of Wabash Class Agents was established in 1956 by Myron G. "Phil" Phillips '27, director of alumni affairs. Class agent letters keep classmates connected to the College and each other by collecting and sharing information on what is happening on campus and with fellow class alumni.

WABASH COLLEGE

Presidents Club

1

In 1987, the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Wabash College established a special forum for those men and women who give a tangible expression of their deep and continuing commitment to the future of Wabash College through lifetime giving to the College of $100,000 or more. In addition to an outright gift, other avenues for funding a President's Club gift to the College include the pooled income fund, a charitable annuity program or trust arrangement, and an endowment life insurance policy.

From the Coordinator of Volunteer Services

Dear Wabash Friends,

Many of you know that community service is now built into freshman orientation. Each advising group provides volunteer service for a Crawfordsville not-for-profit organization. Everyone benefits: our students get a closer look at the place and people with whom they will spend four years, and our community meets their newest residents. Students learn, from the first week of their Wabash experience, that one way to live humanely is to serve others.

You all know that already, for during this past year 2,265 alumni (22%) of you chose to spend some of your volunteer time on behalf of Wabash College. In fact, we've been able to document 4,275 instances of volunteerism, and we know that is only a fraction of the whole. (See links to volunteer lists on the following pages.)

Last summer 12 talented, successful individuals, nearly all Wabash alumni, taught entrepreneurship to our students. Among other activities, students had conference calls with venture capitalists, visits by intellectual property attorneys, and a day at an alumnus-led Crawfordsville international manufacturer. Furthermore, Crawfordsville and Indianapolis businessmen and women hosted those students for two-week projects, where students designed marketing plans, reached out to new clients, planned new operations — bringing the textbook to life for those students. Alumni visited campus each month to talk about their own careers, sharing their stories and teaching interview, resume, and networking skills. Alumni mentored students in internships across the country. An alumnus designed the curriculum for a March 2006 spring break marketing immersion trip. All this happened on a campus without a business major.

Enthusiastic alumni organized golf outings and baseball game trips for alumni and friends; raised funds for scholarships and then hosted dinners to award them; worked with admissions prospects in their hometowns and on campus; helped President Ford shape the new strategic plan; and represented Wabash at the inaugurations of college presidents around the country. Fraternity alumni raised funds for the new Phi Delta Theta house, planned for renovation and construction at Phi Gamma Delta, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Phi Kappa Psi, and Delta Tau Delta, and advised undergraduates in other fraternities. Alumni in Turkey started a new regional alumni association, while alumni in Mexico and Belgium helped to shape student immersion experiences there. Alumni in more than 50 locations led activities in regional associations of Wabash men and parents.

Alumni greeted our incoming freshmen and their parents; welcomed our new faculty members; assisted with varsity athletic programs; provided another very successful Moot Court program; challenged and welcomed our graduating seniors into the National Association of Wabash Men; shared classroom teaching responsibilities with faculty in nearly every department; spoke at Sphinx Club chapels, student organizations, weekly chapels — the list is endless.

You are the strategic advantage that makes this College an ever-improving center of excellence. We thank you for your generous gifts of time and energy, so often including Wabash in your lives.

Sincerely,
Nancy J. Doemel
Senior Advancement Officer and Coordinator of Volunteer Services

National Association of Wabash Men

The National Association of Wabash Men (NAWM) is the alumni association of Wabash College to which all alumni, as defined by the College, are members.

The NAWM Board of Directors is the Association's governing body whose mission is to help facilitate integration of the College's alumni, students, administration, parents, faculty, and friends in order to help the Association achieve its goals and ultimately help the College achieve its mission of "educating men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely."
